

Naofumi MARUYAMA

Having held a solo exhibition for a group of bare and tranquil monochrome paintings in 2018, Naofumi Maruyama created new artworks full of colors this time around. All of these paintings are equally impressive since their images dazzle the viewers with the soft, sempiternal air. In these paintings he intentionally focuses on specific objects more so than his previous artworks, and his motif's physical existence means nothing before Maruyama's new body of work.
